DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This painted brick rowhouse is three stories high and three bays wide on the second and third stories. It is accented by splayed brick flat arched lintels and sills. The first floor has been altered to accommodate a storefront facade. The street level shop entrance is flanked by two display windows. To the extreme left of the first story facade is a doorway leading to upper floors and bordered by fluted columns. An applied aluminum cornice spans the first story facade directly above the windows and doors. Above the cornice, a rectangular sheet metal signboard announces the store's wares.

Unsymmetrical fenestration on the second and third floors suggests the location of the original doorway on the right side of the building. The three windows punctuating either facade are flat, double hung with six over six lights. A simple cornice crowns the flat roof.
